This is your weekend—and the choices are all yours! Sign up for a few classes and reserve the rest of the weekend for shopping, watching demonstrations or working on your art. Or, sign up for four sessions and really get the most out of this opportunity to develop some new skills.

Please note that some of the sessions offer a limited number of seats. As you fill out this form, list session numbers in order of preference. We've also included blanks for listing alternate choices. We will use these alternate choices in the event that your first choices are filled.
